Goodbye Yellow Brick Road
Tab Chords And Lyrics
By Elton John

Capo on 3rd is the original key
Intro – D – A/Db – Bm – Bm/A – G – A7 - D

Em                          A7              D                          G
When are you gonna come down - When are you going to land
C                                   A7                      D
I should have stayed on the farm - I should have listened to my old man
      Em                            A7         D                       G
You know you can't hold me forever - I didn't sign up with you
      C                        A7
I'm not a present for your friends to open
  D                                                 A+   C  F  A+  Gm  A7
This boy's too young to be singing the blues
     D                        Gb                    G                D
So goodbye yellow brick road - Where the dogs of society howl
       B7                        Em                 A7                    D
You can't plant me in your penthouse - I'm going back to my plough
Bm                           Gb                    G                           A+
Back to the howling old owl in the woods - Hunting the horny back toad
              D – A/Db         Bm  Bm/A       G           A7           A+
Oh I've finally decided my future lies - Beyond the yellow brick road
```

C – F - A+ - Gm – A7 - D

Em                            A7           D                                 G
What do you think you'll do then - I bet that'll shoot down your plane
      C                        A7                      D
It'll take you a couple of vodka and tonics - To set you on your feet again
 Em                   A7                          D                       G
Maybe you'll get a replacement - There's plenty like me to be found
C                   A7                      D                                        A+
Mongrels - who ain't got a penny - Sniffing for tidbits like you on the ground
```

C – F - A+ - Gm – A7
