

Ramblin Man

Allman Brothers Band

C Bb C F G
 Lord, I was born a ramblin' man, trying to make a living and doing the best I can.
 F C Am F C G C
 When it's time for leaving, I hope you'll understand, that I was born a rambling man.

C Bb C F G
 My father was a gambler down in Georgia. He wound up on the wrong end of a gun.
 F C Am F C G C
 And I was born in the back of a Greyhound bus, rolling down highway forty-one.

C Bb C F G
 Lord, I was born a ramblin' man, trying to make a living and doing the best I can.
 F C Am F C G C
 When it's time for leaving, I hope you'll understand, that I was born a rambling man.

Instrumental

C Bb C F G
 I'm on my way to New Orleans this morning, Leaving out of Nashville, Tennessee.
 F C Am F C G C
 They're always having a good time down on the Bayou, Lord. Them Delta women think the world of me.

C Bb C F G
 Lord, I was born a ramblin' man, trying to make a living and doing the best I can.
 F C Am F C G C
 When it's time for leaving, I hope you'll understand, that I was born a rambling man.

"Ramblin' Man" is a 1973 song by The Allman Brothers Band, featured on their album Brothers and Sisters. It was written by Dickey Betts, who also sang lead vocals.