Intro: | A | E7 A |

A E7 A
Bottle of wine, fruit of the vine, when you gonna let me get so - ber?

A E7 A
Let me alone, let me go home, let me go back and start o-ver

A E D A E7 A
Ramblin' a-round this dirty old town, and singin' for nickels and dimes

A E D A E7 A E7
Times gettin' tough, I ain't got e-nough to buy me a bottle of wine

A E7 A
Bottle of wine, fruit of the vine, when you gonna let me get so - ber?

A E7 A
Let me alone, let me go home, let me go back and start o-ver

A E D A E7 A
It's a little ho-tel, older than Hell, and dark as the coal in the mine

A E D A E7 A E7
Blanket's too thin, I lay there and grin, because I got a little bottle of wine

A E7 A
Bottle of wine, fruit of the vine, when you gonna let me get so - ber?

A E7 A
Let me alone, let me go home, let me go back and start o-ver

A E D A E7 A
It's a pain in my head and bugs in my bed, and my pants are so old that they shine

A E D A E7 A E7
Out on the street tell the people I meet, "Won'tcha buy me a bottle of wine?"

A E D A E7 A
You know, a preacher will preach, and a teacher will teach, and the miner will dig in the mine

A E D A E7 A E7
I ride the rods, trustin' in God, and a-huggin' my bottle of wine

A E7 A
Bottle of wine, fruit of the vine, when you gonna let me get so - ber?

A E7 A
Let me alone, let me go home, let me go back and start o-ver

A E D A E7 A
Jolie bou-teille, sacrée Bou-teille. Veux-tu me laisser tran-quille?

A E D A E7 A E7
Je veux te quit-ter, je veux m'en al-ler. Je veux recom-mencer ma vie

A E7 A
Bottle of wine, fruit of the vine, when you gonna let me get so - ber?
